Reading

- In Reading, the book we will use in class this half term is: The Tiger Who Came for Tea by Judith Kerr.
- The children will also be reading books to help with decoding and their phonic knowledge.

Writing

- Our writing is based on the class book, we will be concentrating on: writing sentences by saying outloud what we want to write, sequencing sentences to form short narratives and re-reading what we have written to check that it makes sense.

Maths

- In Maths we will be concentrating on: comparing height and length, numbers to 40, word problems and counting in 2's, 5's and 10's.

Topic

- Our topic is: What would you eat at a tea party? We will be thinking about different foods, the countries they originally comes from and the people who live there.
- In science we will be learning about everyday materials. Investigating their properties and whether they are magnetic.

University for Children on Friday.
